PROCEEDINGS OF THE GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE.

READ.—

Government Order No. E. 6532-33—Edn. 7-45-20, dated 8th March 1947, authorising the Director of Public Instruction in Mysore, to grant extension of service beyond the age of superannuation to Primary School Teachers provided there are no candidates in the waiting list ready for appointment and also that the extension shall be by one year at a time and does not extend beyond the age of 57.

2. Government Order No. E. 8610-2—Edn. 68-47-28, dated the 16th February 1949, delegating to the Director of Public Instruction, among others the power of granting extension of service beyond the age of superannuation to Primary School teachers subject to certain conditions as laid down in Government Order dated 8th March 1947 read above.

3. Correspondence ending with letter No. P.V. 27—R3, dated the 19th March 1954, from the Accountant General in regard to the inclusion of a note under Article 294 (c) of the Mysore Service Regulations in the matter of grant of extension of service to Primary School teachers by the Director of Public Instruction beyond the age of superannuation as per Government Order dated 8th March 1947 read above.

4. Un-official Note No. G. 109—53-54—P.S.C., dated 26th November 1953, from the Secretary, Public Service Commission, furnishing the opinion of the Commission in the matter.

5. Letter No. M2. 5495-434—53-54, dated 26th June 1954, from the Director of the Public Instruction in the matter of empowering him with powers to grant extension of service beyond the age of superannuation to all grades of teachers in the Education Department for not more than a year at a time but not beyond the age of 57 years.

6. Letter No. H3. 1811-110—54-55 dated 12th July 1954, from the Director of Public Instruction regarding fixing the age of superannuation in the case of teachers employed in aided schools.

ORDER NO. E. 6244-54—EDN. 80-54-2, DATED BANGALORE, THE 20TH AUGUST 1954.

After consideration of all aspects of the question, it is directed that in the Education Department, the age of retirement of trained teachers may generally be

(SRI A. G. RAMACHANDRA RAO.)

58 years. With regard to teachers who are not trained, but who are otherwise efficient, the age of retirement may also be 58 years. Teachers trained and untrained, who have not got a good record of service and who are not up to the mark, will retire at 55 years. The relaxation regarding the age of retirement will be in force, only till such time as sufficient number of trained teachers become available for employment.

2. Necessary action will be taken in the Finance Department to issue suitable note to Article 294 (c) of M.S.R.

B. M. KRISHNAN,

Secretary to Government,
Education Department.
